Ayer's Hair Vigor,

For restoring to Gray Hair its natural Vitality and Color.

A dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. It soon restores faded or gray hair to its original color, with the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed; but such as remain can be saved by this application, and stimulated into activity, so that a new growth of hair is produced. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. The restoration of vitality it gives to the scalp arrests and prevents the formation of dandruff, which is often so uncleanly and offensive. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a HAIR DRESSING, nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich, glossy lustre, and a grateful perfume.

A CHANGE IN THE EDITORSHIP OF THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE.

From the Cincinnati Commercial.

Under Mr. White's direction the Tribune has been the most independent of the independent journals. Indeed it has sometimes been so perpendicular that it may almost be said to have leaned backward. Mr. White long ago spurned all mere party restraints, and he had an implacable animosity for all frauds and shams. Dissatisfied with the Grant administration, and sympathizing with Sumner, Schurz, and Trumbull, in their warfare with it, he was conspicuous among those who took part in the Cincinnati Convention, and though disappointed with the result here, he supported Greeley and Brown with the utmost earnestness. He has been a consistent and fierce free trader, and has done more than any other man to enlighten the people of the Northwest into an understanding and abhorrence of the so-called Protective system. We rate Mr. White's ability as an editor very high, his highest quality was his courage—that was unfaltering—so perfect that he seemed not to be conscious of dangers, or to calculate consequences; and yet he saw the scope of events very clearly, and counted most closely. When, however, he had made up his mind to take a particular course, no perils by the way disturbed him. A man of positive character and inherent force, he has made his mark upon American journalism, and his absence from the field of labor will be conspicuous.

His success, who was his predecessor in authority in the Tribune, Joseph Medill, is perhaps best known to the country as the Fire Mayor of Chicago, and as a member of the Civil Service Reform Commission. He is known to the Western Associated Press, as the most active of the executive officers of this organization during the greater number of the years of its existence, and as one singularly capable of mastering masses of entangled details of business, and of stating the essentials so as to make them intelligible to all capable of comprehending the simplest affairs. Mr. Medill has been in Europe something over a year, and his letters to the Tribune have been filled with the most valuable information, and are better worth collecting and publishing in book form than any other European correspondence that we have seen.

Mr. Medill returned from Europe a fortnight ago, hastened in advance of his family by private business, the import of which now appears. He has purchased the Tribune stock, which gives him a controlling interest in the paper, at the rate that the stock of the New York Tribune was sold after the death of Horace Greeley. The two Tribunes have thus been valued, with their real estate, at $1,000,000 each.

The earliest difference between Messrs. White and Medill in the conduct of the Tribune—aside from the necessary antagonism between two men of strong will and fixed purposes—was on the question of tariff taxation. Mr. White, as we have stated, being an extremely zealous advocate of the excellence of the greatest practicable freedom of the commercial intercourse between nations, while Mr. Medill believed in Clay's American system. Mr. Medill's views have, we believe, been liberalized and, perhaps we may, without offense, say enlarged on this subject, and it is possible the course of the Tribune in respect to the relations of the several industries to the government will be changed, if at all, upon very fine lines.

While Mr. White's tendencies were to the sharpest criticism of the Republican party, unsparing denunciation of its shortcomings, and unhesitating support upon principal of some of its opponents, Mr. Medill has believed in national salvation through the Republican party, in accomplishing works of reform inside the party; and he has persisted in seeing the good in President Grant, in having faith in him and maintaining the friendliest relations with him. He has, perhaps, not been insensible of Grant's follies and failures, but he has been disposed to charitableness and to looking upon the brighter side of his character and achievements. Of course, he thought the course of the Tribune in the Greeley and Grant campaign desperately and fatally wrong.

Joseph Medill is a man who has been charged with eccentricity, but his almost unanimous selection for Mayor of Chicago, when the city was laid in ashes, proved that his fellow-citizens did not estimate his oddities as serious infirmities, and saw the really great qualities and genuineness of the man. He has immense intelligence, and though not enjoying high health, is tough, and has a great deal of work in him. It is possible he may not be skilled in getting the best service out of others, and that some time will be required to enable him to realize the progress that journalism has made since he was in charge of a daily newspaper; but he will learn like a clean boy and come to the front in good shape. As the case is about to stand before the country, viz.: squarely between the Republican and Democratic parties, the Tribune may, under the new management, be relied upon as Republican, and that fact will be one of considerable significance in the Northwest, and of peculiar interest and influence in Chicago.

DECATUR, ILLINOIS:

Wednesday Evening, Nov. 4.

THANKSGIVING.

Proclamation by the President.

WASHINGTON, Thursday, Oct. 29, '74.

By the President of the United States—A Proclamation:

We are reminded by the changing seasons that it is time to pause in our daily avocations and offer thanks to Almighty God for the mercies and abundance of the year which is drawing to a close.

The blessings of free government continue to be vouchsafed to us; the earth has responded to the labor of the husbandman; the land has been free from pestilence; internal order is being maintained and peace with other powers has prevailed. It is fitting that, at stated periods, we should cease from our accustomed pursuits and from the turmoil of our daily lives, and unite in thankfulness for the blessings of the past and in the cultivation of kindly feelings toward each other.

Now, therefore, recognizing these considerations, I, Ulysses S. Grant, President of the United States, do recommend to all citizens to assemble in their respective places of worship on next, and express their thanks for the mercy and favor of Almighty God, and laying aside all political contentions and all secular occupations, to observe such day as a day of rest, thanksgiving and prayer.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and seal, and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed. Done at the city of Washington on this, the 27th day of October, in the year 1874, and of the independence of the United States the ninety-ninth.

U. S. GRANT.

By the President.
HAMILTON FISH, Secretary of State.

YOU PAYS YOUR MONEYS AND TAKES YOUR CHOICE!

These two dispatches came to hand just before going to press; somebody has lied about the matter:

MATTOON, ILL., Nov. 4.
J. R. MOSSER:—Coles about seventy-five for Cannon.
T. E. WOODS.

MATTOON, ILL., Nov. 4.
J. R. PICKRELL:—You carry Coles county by thirty-five.
J. J. BEALL.

THE VERY LATEST.

We re-open our forms to give the following, which has just been received:

Coles, 46 majority for Pickrell.
Piatt, 75 majority for Pickrell.
Douglas, 83 majority for Cannon.

THE ELECTION.

Returns from the elections yesterday came in such shape as to prevent anything like a reasonable surmise as to the general result. Considerable Democratic gains, however, have been made, in Congressmen, and it is by no means certain that the next House will contain a majority in accord with the Administration. Notable among the changes in this respect is the defeat of Gen. Butler, of Massachusetts, and the reported election of a democratic governor in the same state.

New York has gone Democratic, while Pennsylvania, Michigan, Wisconsin and Minnesota have been carried by the Republicans. In Illinois Ridgway is undoubtedly elected, while the result on Superintendent is in doubt. The Democrats and their allies gain not less than five members of Congress in this State, and probably more.

In this Congressional district Cannon is elected by a goodmajority, and in the senatorial district the result is exceedingly close, with the chances in favor of the election of Harold. Jennings is elected Sheriff by a fair majority. The choice of representatives is in doubt, the voting being so mixed up as to absolutely prevent anything like a fair guess as to the result.

THE direct cable, which was lost several weeks ago in deep water, has been picked up. It is in perfect condition, and will probably be landed safely.

An election to fill a vacancy in the French Assembly was held in Pas de Calais, Sunday. A Bonapartist was chosen. The growing strength of the Imperialists has been so widely felt that the issue of this election will scarcely be noticed.

KELLEY, of Philadelphia, has been exercising his pigiron voice over the woes and pains that are associated with the Reciprocity treaty proposed with Canada. Kelley had an awful dread of commercial intercourse, but he fully approved the Credit Mobilier enterprise, and the taking of stock in it by impecunious Congressmen.

BOSTON, Nov. 3—Banks' friends estimate his majority at 5,000 over Gaston, who had 4,459 majority in 1862.

A private dispatch to the Advertiser, from Essex, says Gen. Butler is undeniably defeated by a thousand majority or more.

Sixty towns give Talbot 15,442, Gaston 4,080. Last year Washburn had in these towns 12,578, and Gaston 7,355.

RAVAGES OF A PESTILENCE.

How the Indians were Destroyed in California in 1833.

The following appears as a communication from Mr. J. J. Warner, in the Los Angeles (Cal.) Star:

I have read of the horrors of the London plague, and of the more than decimation by pestilence of the inhabitants of the various parts of the world, in different ages, and of the destruction of mankind by the angels of the Lord, and by destroying angels; but I have never read or heard of such a general destruction of people by any angel good or bad, or by plague or pestilence, as that which swept the valley of the Sacramento and San Joaquin in the summer of 1833.

In the autumn of 1832 a party, of which the writer was a member, traveled from the mountains down along the banks of the San Joaquin river and up those of the Sacramento to some distance above the confluence of the latter with the Feather river. The number of Indians living along and in the vicinity of the banks of the rivers was so much greater than I had ever seen living upon the same area of country, that it presented a constant source of surprise. The conclusion was then reached by me that there was no other place on the continent, north of the tropics, the natural productions of which could support so large a population as was then living in the section of country to which I have referred.

In the latter part of the summer of 1833 we entered the northern extremity of the Sacramento valley from the Klamath lake and Pitt river countries. We found the northern part of the valley strewn with the skeletons and fragments of skeletons of Indians, under the shading trees, around springs and the convenient watering places, upon the banks of the river, and over the plain, where wolves and coyotes, waddling from tree to tree or over the plain, their hides distended with unnatural fatness, had dragged and denuded them. From the head of the valley to the American river, but one living Indian was seen, and he was the most perfect personification of solitude that was ever presented to my view; his wasted muscles, his eyes deeply sunk in their sockets, as if there were no brains within the cranium, emitted a dull, vacant gaze, as if astonished to behold a living human being, when he believed that all, all were dead, and he alone left, telling most emphatically of his utter loneliness, of how he had seen the destroying angel engaged in his work of death on every hand, and wherever his eyes were turned, until he himself was prostrated, not killed, but left to rise upon his feet, and wander about among the bones and festering bodies of his folk. The dwellings of the Indians in the numerous villages located upon and along the banks of the Sacramento river and its tributaries were void, and no foot-tracks but those of fowls and wild beasts were to be seen in the lonely villages.

As we traveled southerly the skeletons were of a fresher appearance, and before reaching the buttes, and from thence southerly, the entire or partially devoured bodies of the Indians, in all stages of decay, were so invariably found in and about all the convenient and desirable camping places that it became necessary, in order to escape the stench of decomposing humanity, to seek our night's encampments on the open plain.

After crossing Feather river, these villages along the Sacramento which in the winter previous were each inhabited by hundreds of Indians were desolate, and the abodes of ruin. The same appalling proofs of this dire calamity were constantly presented to us as we traveled up the San Joaquin. Neither biblical or profane history has portrayed such mournful results of the march of a destroying angel as were presented to our senses as we repassed through, along by, and around those silent and vacated villages, which some ten months before we had seen swarming with Indian life and resounding with voices from hundreds of human throats.

Around the naked villages, graves and the ashes of funeral pyres, the skeletons and swollen bodies told a tale of death such as to us no written record had ever revealed. From the head of the Sacramento valley until we reached the mouth of King's river, not exceeding five live Indians were seen, and here we found encamped a village of Indians, among whom the destroying angel was sating his greed of human victims by a ghastly carnage. During the one night more than a score of victims were added to the hosts upon which he had been feeding. The wailing of that stricken village during that night was incessant and most terrible. The sword of the destroyer was a remittent fever, with which the victims were first stricken down, to be finished by a hot air bath, followed by a plunge into a cold water one. It was evident to us from the signs which we saw that at the first the Indians buried their dead; but when the dead became so numerous that the living could not bury them, resort was had to the burning of the dead bodies, and when the living, from diminished numbers, were unable to do this, they abandoned their villages, the sick and the dying, and fled in dismay, only to die by the sides of the springs and pools of water, and beneath the shade of protecting trees.

A correspondent of the London Times stating the advantages that Canada offers emigrants, says:

"The value of money is subject to no fluctuations, and any emigrant may calculate before starting from home, with sovereigns in his purse, what will be his worth in dollars.'

That is one of the advantages that hard money has over soft money.

JOHN DONLON.

BLOOMINGTON, ILL., Nov. 4, 1.30 p.m.

The Democrats elected their men in this congressional district by from eight to ten huddred majority.

Republican ticket elected in the county with that exception five to eight hundred.

CHICAGO, ILL., Nov. 4.

Smith and Ward, Republican candidates for Congress, in First and Second Districts, probably defeated.

Farwell, Republican, in the Third District, is elected.

County officers, opposition, elected from five to seven thousand majority. Have opposition Senator in First District.

RUTLAND, Nov. 3.—Dennison is elected to Congress over Poland by a large majority.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—Two wards in Brooklyn show 1,000 Democratic gain. Kings county probably gives 10,000 Democratic majority.

Tilden will go out of the city with between 40,000 and 45,000 majority.—The Democratic gains in 22 districts outside of the city reach 6,000.

TARRYTOWN, Nov. 3.—Odell, dem., is elected to Congress from the 12th District by 2,000 majority.

CHICAGO, Nov. 3.—Returns from the city and Cook county are still incomplete, but enough is known to insure the election of the entire Opposition county ticket by a majority of probably 5,000, but the Republicans re-elect Farwell, in the 3d district, and probably Smith in the 1st district. Returns from the State to midnight indicate the following result on Congressmen: 4th district, Hurlbut, rep., re-elected; 5th, Henderson, rep., re-elected; 7th, Campbell, dem., elected, (probably); 8th, Farst, rep., re-elected; 9th, Whiting, rep.; 10th, Bailey, dem.; 11th, Wike, dem., 12th, Springer, dem., probably elected; 13th, close, with chances in favor of Stevenson, dem.; 14th, Cannon, rep., re-elected; 15th, Eden, dem., re-elected; 16th, Sparks, democrat, probably elected; 17th, Morrison, dem., re-elected; 18th, Hartzel, Dem.; 19th, Anderson, ind., probably elected. The Republican State ticket is undoubtedly elected, but it is impossible to say by what majority.

Chicago.—Returns up to 2 o'clock do not change materially the estimate sent from this point earlier this morning, except that Corwin, rep., is probably re-elected from the 7th district.

BOSTON, Nov. 3.—The Journal gives the vote of 158 towns—Talbot, 43,688; Gaston, 40,348. Boston not included, and concedes 6,000 city majority to Gaston, and says that, unless the back towns come up nobly, the result will be the election of Gaston and the defeat of all the republican candidates for Congress except Pierce, Harris and Buffington.

The Herald says Tarbox undoubtedly beats Ayer. The Republicans elect 36 State representatives and 2 senators. The Democrats elect 14 representatives and 3 senators.

Geo. F. Hoar carries the 9th Congressional district by 377 majority; two towns to hear from will not alter the result.

BOSTON, Nov. 3.—Gaston's election is conceded on all sides, with probably a majority of from 5,000 to 8,000. Frost's election in the 4th district is claimed, but it will be very close. Butler is badly beaten, Thompson having a majority of 1,041, with only one small town to hear from. Banks has made a clear sweep in the 5th district, Gooch not carrying a single town except his own. Williams and Alexander are also defeated by a small majority. Ayer is defeated in the seventh district.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—The Democratic Central Committee have received the following dispatch:

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 3.—We have carried the State by a large majority. The colored people in large numbers voted openly and freely for the Democratic and Conservative ticket. Gibson, Ellis, Moore, Spencer and Levy are certainly elected to Congress, and probably Creax. The election was quiet and peaceable.

[Signed] JOHN MCENERY.

SHREVEPORT, Nov. 3.—Complete returns from the parish of Caddo show a Democratic majority of 629. Two precincts of Bossier parish give Democratic majorities. No others heard from. There was a heavy colored vote. Levy is elected to Congress from this District.

MILWAUKEE Nov. 3.—Returns indicate that the Republicans have elected Williams in the 1st Congressional District. Caswell in the 2d, Magoon in the 3d, Rusk in the 7th, McDill in the 8th. The Democrats elect Lynde in the 4th, and Burckard in the 5th; the 6th is close and doubtful, with the chances in favor of Kimball, Rep. There is a strong probability that the Republicans will have a majority on joint ballot in the Legislature, thus securing a Republican Senator to succeed Carpenter. There is but little doubt the Republicans will have a majority in the State at large.

MILWAUKEE, Nov. 3.—The Legislature is very close, but the Republicans will probably have a small majority on joint ballot. Senate probably Democratic by ten majority. The Chairman of the Republican Central Committee claims a majority in the Legislature and 6 out of 8 Congressmen, which will preserve the complexion of the delegation in the present Congress. The Democrats, however, do not concede the 6th District, which is very close. In this county the Republicans elect 3 members of the Legislature, which is a gain of 5.

New York.—Pratt, rep., is re-elected to Congress in the 28th District by 2,000 majority. Leavenworth, rep., elected from the 25th District, and Meade, dem., is elected to Congress from the fifth district.

Hathorn, rep., for Congress is probably elected from the 20th district.—Bagley, rep., is elected to Congress from the 22d district. Wheeler, rep., for Congress, 19th District, has 6,000 majority. Williams, rep., is elected from the 17th district by 3,000 majority.

ST. PAUL, MINN., Nov. 3.—Scanty returns make it probable that all three of the Republican Congressmen are elected by reduced majorities, and the Supreme Judges. King, Republican, for Congress, has 660 in 42 towns. The Democrats made a clean sweep in this city. Vote light.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—The Democrats carry two thirds of the Congressmen for the State, and have 20 majority in the Assembly; 478 districts outside the city show a net Democratic gain of 9,347.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—Walker, dem., is elected to Congress from the 28th district. Tilden's State majority is fully 4,000.

Samuel S. Cox, dem., is re-elected to Congress from the 6th district.

WORCESTER, Nov. 3.—Gaston, Dem., for Governor, 4,000; Talbot, Republican, 3,576.

Henry L. Pierce, Rep., is elected in the 3d district by 1,742 majority. It is believed Chapin is elected to Congress from the 11th district; Ayer, Rep., from the 7th; Williams, Rep., 8th, doubtful; Hoar, Rep., 9th; Frost, Rep., 4th, doubtful; Banks, Ind., 5th, by a large majority; Harris, Rep., 2d, and J. Buffington, 1st, are doubtless elected. The Democrats claim the State. The Republicans are waiting for returns.

BOSTON, Nov. 3.—Ninety-nine towns without Boston, give Talbot 24,519, and Gaston 21,093. The same towns last year gave Washburn 19,184 and Gaston 18,918. The majorities against Butler increase. At Salem he was nearly 1,000 behind the ticket, and his defeat is overwhelming. In the 7th and 8th Congressional Districts Williams and Ayer are about 1,000 behind the Democrats. At this hour the streets are full of jubilant Democrats, who believe Gaston is elected. The Traveler, Rep., concedes the State to Gaston.

New York.—City complete. Tilden 89,243; Dix 45,187; Wickham, dem., for Mayor, 57,733; Watts, rep., 37,339; Ottendorfer, ind., 24,762; Hayes, dem., for Register, 61,036; Jones, rep., 24,425.

PITTSBURG, Nov 3.—The Republicans carry the State by 15,000 to 20,000 majority. Bayne, rep., in the 23d district, is probably elected. The democrats elect 12 and probably 7, of the State Congressmen. White, rep., in the 25th Congressional district, is elected.

CITY DEPARTMENT.

..Daily to-day.

..No police news to-day.

..In demand—Election news.

..People's Lawyer!—Turn Him Out!

..Oysters received fresh every morning, at Imboden's.

..The "oldest inhabitant" has never known a pleasanter fall than this.

..Chas. W. Allison has been making large quantities of cider at his dwelling on North Broadway. A squad of boys from the High School make him visits occasionally, and imbibe a considerable amount of his drink.

..Many of the poor men of the north part of the city save cow pasturing by allowing their stock to run loose on the commons when the poundmaster is away.

..The northeast part of the city is building up fast. New houses may be seen approaching completion in various localities of this part of Decatur.

..Many of our voters take an unusual interest in the election, because they have money, hats and other articles up as wagers. Considerable money and articles of value will change hands to-day.

..Fresh Cranberries at E. B. Pratt & Son's.

..A number of Decatur teamsters make a good living by hauling sand from the sand banks south of the city.—Considerable sand is occasionally shipped from here.

..The small addition to the buildings at the gas works is now completed, and gas pipes, fittings and fixtures have been stored therein.

A REAL FIRE.

This morning at about 4 o'clock the fire bell of the first ward pealed forth and woke up all the people living in that vicinity. In a short time the hose companies, Nos. 2 and 3, assembled at their headquarters, and hurriedly ran to the scene of the fire, opposite J. P. Leake's Workingmen's Hotel. No hydrant was near to which the companies could attack their hose, and consequently the hose was of no use. All the firemen's efforts they could make in other ways were not sufficient to put out the fire, which soon consumed the building. A large portion of the household goods were saved from the fire. The house is in ashes. There was $600 insurance on the house, and this will probably cover the loss.

A number of the firemen belonging to Hose Co. No. 1 and to the Hook and Ladder Co., assembled, and got down in the vicinity where the fire had burned the house down. On finding that they had done so much work for nothing, some of the "boys" were not in the best of humor, and were not very particular about the language they used.

The house was owned by David Herbert, and was valued at about $900. The fire was caused by a defective flue.

S. Einstein left on the noon train to buy his second stock of winter goods.

Look out for cheap goods at S. Einstein's next Saturday. He will buy a large lot of fine cassimeres, which he will sell very cheap.

Fair and Festival.—We call attention to the advertisement for a fair and festival, to be held in the Opera House, by the ladies of the Baptist Church, on Monday and Tuesday evenings, Nov. 9th and 10th. All our people who have attended the festivals given by this society heretofore know that they furnish a superb entertainment, and they can rest assured that the one in prospect will be fully equal to any of its predecessors.—We trust that our citizens will bestow a patronage corresponding in liberality with the scale on which preparations for the affair are being made.

A Taking Entertainment.—Let everybody remember the entertainment to be given by the Daughters of Rebekah, at the Opera House, on Friday evening of this week. Some of our best home talent is engaged, and a right good performance will be given. The proceeds of the entertainment are to be devoted to charitable purposes, which fact, together with the taking character of the entertainment itself, should crowd the house above and below.

Remember the Poor and get double the worth of your money at the Opera House Friday evening.

Corn Thieves.—Many farmers are troubled with corn thieves, who take away large quantities of this grain each winter. Whether it is to feed or to sell is unknown, but a large quantity disappears mysteriously at any rate. Locks do not secure the grain against these thieves, who, it is claimed, have duplicate keys for every padlock in the country. A recent plan adopted by a wealthy farmer living east of the city has been found to work first-rate: It is to put a large trap in the crib which catches the thief's hand and holds him fast till some one comes to release him. By this means the loser can discover the thief when all other means fail.

Gentlemen!—Please call at the Hat Store for Hats, Caps, Buck, Kid, Dog-Skin, Cloth and Fur Gloves; also Fine Furnishing Goods. 13 East Main street.

Explosion.—At the Union Iron Works last night a small lamp commenced trying to catch fire inside and explode, just to annoy a workman. It started early in the evening, and every minute it looked as if an explosion was imminent. Several round expletives would occasionally come from the man as he looked at the lamp. Then came a burst—a thunder-sound, and a minute later a search was made, but not a piece of that lamp as large as a pin could be found. It was shivered to atoms. Happily no fire resulted from the explosion.

Ladies!—You will find a choice line of Mink, Seal, Fitch, Lynx and Alaska Furs, Seal Sacques, Children's Furs and Sacques, at the HAT STORE.

More Night Work.—A portion of the workmen employed at Burroughs & Co.'s foundry and machine shops now have to work nights, in order to fill the orders for machinery which come in. A part of an engine is now being made at this machine shop for a mill in Pittsfield, Ill.

Prof. Will. E. Smith has kindly volunteered the services of his troupe of Swiss Bell Ringers, to furnish music for the Charity Entertainment of D. of R. at the Opera House Friday evening, Nov. 6th.

MARRIED.

On Wednesday, Nov. 4th, 1874, by Rev. Robert Mackenzie, MR. AMOS F. IMBODEN and MISS EFFA A. BETZER, both of Decatur.

IMPROVEMENTS.

Chas. W. Aiken has been repairing up his warehouse, containing agricultural implements, on Broadway street. This much improves the appearance and utility of the house.

Mr. Chas. Wood has had a new frame building erected near the corner of Broadway and Eldorado streets. The house will be completed in about two weeks, when Mr. Wood will occupy it with a new shoe store.

Stafford, who recently bought out Dr. McBride's dwelling, on the corner of Broadway and Eldorado streets, has been busy since making the purchase, at building up improvements about the house, and the residence will soon be beautified by the present owner until it will present as nice an appearance as any residence in the city.

E. A. Stare, the grain man, has made some improvement in his elevator at the Western Railway on Broadway. He has also built several cribs for holding corn this winter.

John Lehman is building a small store-house on Water street, opposite the St. Clair mills. As soon as it is completed Mr. Lehman will occupy it with a small stock of groceries.

PERSONAL MENTION.

T. O. Smith, Esq., came in on the train from the east to-day.

Elder N. S. Haynes, of the Christian Church of this city has been conducting a protracted meeting at Mt. Zion for the past week, with good results.

Dr. Ira B. Curtis and Mr. Samuel Newell will leave for Hot Springs, Arkansas, to-morrow. The Dr. has strong hopes that he will be cured of his paralysis, and Mr. Newell hopes to improve his general health by a few weeks or months' sojourn at this health-giving locality.

The Question Answered—"How Linn & Scruggs employ so many salesmen and sell goods cheap." They keep the largest stock of dry goods in Decatur—they retail more goods than any other Dry Goods House in the United States, according to population, and their expenses are less in proportion to sales. Besides they are thus enabled to buy most of their goods of first hands and by the case and package, which gives them great advantage over small dealers.

Heaven's First Law is Order.—Regularity in eating, sleeping and exercise, and abstinence from such dangerous irritants as alcohol and tobacco, tend to secure a long and healthful life. But even a strict observance of these wholesome rules will not always avert sickness. The best safeguard against epidemic and other diseases is DR. For Several Years numerous experiments have been making for burning our soft coal successfully in a self-feeding magazine stove, that would require the fire to be built but once during the season, and one in which fire could be kept from ten to thirty-six hours, without replenishing. Some of these experiments have proven partially successful, but none a perfect success, excepting the invention of the "OMAHA." We notice this stove is for sale by CLOSE & GRISWOLD.

Self-Evident.—If two cans are, of the same size and both full it is self-evident that one contains as much by measure as the other, although one being filled with heavy substances may weigh many ounces more than the other. Now, as Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder is put up in cans as large, and hold as much by measure as other kinds, and as baking powder is used by measure (teaspoonfuls), and not by weight, if all were of the same strength, one would go as far as the other; but as Dr. Price's is as effective, by using two teaspoonfuls as most kinds are with three, then it is self-evident that there is one-third saved in using his powder. Housewives will find that aside from its excellence and healthfulness that two cans of Dr. Price's is equal to three cans the same size of the weighty kinds. A trial will prove this, and also that Dr. Price's True Flavoring Extracts are the most natural and delicate flavors made.

DIED.

On Tuesday the 3d inst., at 2½ o'clock, p. m., at her late residence in this city, MRS. MARY E. HASKELL, wife of L. C. Haskell, Esq., aged 43 years.

Mrs. H. had been a resident of Decatur for sixteen years, and was a most estimable christian lady. For several months she has been gradually sinking with consumption, and was fully aware for several weeks before her death that she must soon bid farewell to earth.—For her this conviction had no terror, and she passed peacefully away. Her family will have the deepest sympathy of the community in their sad bereavement.

AHEAD ALL OVER THE STATE!

We notice a great reduction in prices at Abel & Locke's Carpet, Wall-Paper and Curtain House. This accounts for the rush at their store, and sets them ahead all over the State. They have the largest stock in central Illinois to select from. Buyers, remember this.

Justice's Court.—This morning the case of Wm. Adams and his son, charged with killing Mrs. Staub Monday last, was called before Justice Goodman, and on motion of The People was postponed until Monday next, when a preliminary examination will be held.

You can Buy at Wessels a fine pair of Ladies' Gaiters for $1.50. Call and examine before you buy at cost. [aug7-dtf

THE St. Louis papers narrate a story of brutality which appeals to every living being with an atom of human sympathy in its composition. A man named Mulvay was arrested a day or two ago on the charge of maltreating his infant stepdaughter. His wife's eldest child heard the infant crying and made a search for it. She found the poor little innocent under the house. The infant's stepfather had placed it there, and carefully boarded up the aperture to prevent its escape. When taken out the child was nearly dead from cold and hunger, its limbs so benumbed that it could not stand alone. The young sister conveyed it to a neighbor, who warmed and fed it and carried it back to its unnatural mother. This personage received her revived off-spring with evident disappointment, and threatened to put an end to the charitable lady who had sheltered it. When her husband returned he placed the child once more in its chilly prison, and the demonstration which ensued among the neighbors caused an enquiry by the police and the arrest of Mulvay and his wife. Such cruelty upon a mere infant seems almost incredible upon any other hypothesis than that of insanity. It is alleged that a Coroner's jury had held him accountable for the death of his first wife, and that his escape was made through a legal technicality.

As congratulatory nuptial messages are reported to have passed between the President and the Czar of all the Russias, we may conclude that amicable relations between the Courts of St. Petersburg and Washington have been restored.

Harper's Bazar

Notices of the Press:

The Bazar is edited with a contribution of tact and talent that we seldom find in any journal; and the journal itself is the organ of the great world of fashion.—Boston Traveller.

The Bazar commends itself to every member of the household—to the children by droll and pretty pictures, to the young ladies by its fasion-plates in endless variety, to the provident matron by its patterns for the children's clothes, to paterfamilias by its tasteful designs for embroidered slippers and luxurious dressing gowns. But the reading-matter of the Bazar is uniformly of great excellence. The paper has acquired a wide popularity for the fireside enjoyment it affords.—N. Y. Evening Post.

Ayer's Hair Vigor

For restoring to Gray Hair its natural Vitality and Color.

A dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. It soon restores faded or gray hair to its original color, with the gloss and freshness of youth. The hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed; but such as remain can be saved by this application, and stimulated into activity, so that a new growth of hair is produced. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. The restoration of vitality it gives to the scalp arrests and prevents the formation of dandruff, which is often so uncleanly and offensive. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Viger can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a HAIR DRESSING nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich, glossy lustre, and a grateful perfume.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping-Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption.

Among the great discoveries of modern science, few are of more real value to mankind than this effectual remedy for all diseases of the Throat and Lungs. A vast trial of its virtues, throughout this and other countries, has convinced us that it is a safe, sure, and effectually control them. The testimony of our best citizens, of all classes, establishes the fact, that CHERRY PECTORAL will and does relieve and cure the afflicting diseases of the Throat and Lungs beyond any other medicine. The most dangerous affections of the Pulmonary Organs yield to its power, and cases of Consumption, cured by this preparation, are publicly known, so remarkable as hardly to be believed, were they not proven beyond dispute. As a remedy, it is adequate, on which the public may rely for full protection. By curing Coughs, the forerunners of more serious disease, it saves innumbered lives, and an amount of suffering not to be computed. It challenges trial, and convinces the most sceptical. Every family should keep it on hand as a protection against the early and unperceived attack of Pulmonary Affections, which are fatal if neglected. Tender lungs need this defence; and it is unwise to be without it. As a safeguard to children, amid the distressing diseases which beset the Throat and Chest of childhood, CHERRY PECTORAL is invaluable: for, be it timely use, multitudes are rescued from premature graves, and saved to the love and affection centred on them. Facts speedily and surely against ordinary colds, securing refreshing and health-restoring sleep. No one will suffer troublesome Influenza and painful Bronchitis, when they know how easily they can be cured.

Originally the product of long, laborious, and successful chemical investigation, no cost or toil is spared in making every bottle in the utmost possible perfection. It may be confidently relied upon as possessing all the virtues it has ever exhibited, and capable of producing cures as memorable as the greatest it has ever effected.
